

8 great reasons to join IPTA in Marbella

1 International certification.
Through IPTA you become internationally certified which gives you the opportunity to work all over the world. The academy has been accredited by EuropeActive, the world's leading standards organization for the health & fitness industry.

2 A great experience at a unique location.
You will receive your education in Marbella, at a great luxury resort by the Mediterranean Sea. Marbella is regarded as one of Europe's top tourist destinations featuring beaches, culture and a vibrant night life.

3 Top level educators.
Our educators are highly merited academics and experts in the field of health & fitness. They have an extensive teaching experience and their passion, dedication and ability to connect with all kinds of people make them well liked by our students.

4 Blended learning approach.
Our blended learning approach gives you the best of two worlds: The flexibility of online education through our own platform, and the quality of face-to-face education in Marbella focusing on the experiential and hands-on learning.

5 Unlimited support.
Our educators give you all the help and support you need to succeed in your studies and develop in your role as a fitness professional. The support you get from our team does not end once you graduate, but continues long afterwards.

6 Professional network.
You will become a part of our international network of fitness professionals, former IPTA students now working throughout the world. It is a forum for cooperation, exchange of ideas and a place where you will get news about job opportunities and more.

7 Golden job opportunities.
The demand for qualified personal trainers has increased tremendously over the past years and the trend is predicted to be continuing. The leading fitness chains are constantly looking for new and competent personal trainers and other fitness professionals.

8 Not just for professionals.
You can join IPTA even if you do not intend to work as a personal trainer. Our courses provide invaluable knowledge for everyone interested in exercise, who wish to learn more about how to train smarter, get better results and prevent injuries.
